Del de Windt Leadership Award for Civic Engagement

The Deckard Family

Daryl & Jenniffer Deckard,
Abbey & Brandon Patton, Connor & Caitlyn Deckard

The Deckard Family has been passionately involved with First Tee – Cleveland for more than 14 years. They are dedicated philanthropists, community leaders and passionate Cleveland sports fans.

In addition to their stellar support of First Tee – Cleveland, the Deckard family supports an array of worthy non-profit organizations, including Julie Billiart Schools, EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute, The Music Settlement, University Hospitals, The Sisters of Notre Dame of the United States, and Daryl and Jenniffer's alma mater, The University of Tulsa, to name a few.

In 2014, the Deckard family was privileged to join forces with Frank and Barbara Sullivan to establish the Sullivan–Deckard Opportunity Scholars Program. This groundbreaking program provides high school seniors aging out of foster care with full scholarships, and with year-round housing and support, providing the opportunity for them to attend Cleveland State University.

The Deckard family has volunteered with the Geauga County Foster Care System, fostering seven children over the years. Daryl and Jenniffer serve on several non-profit and corporate boards. The younger generation of Deckards serves on the boards of America Scores, Applewood Centers and FCA of Cleveland. Daryl and Jenniffer are thrilled to be grandparents to Abbey and Brandon's two kids and Connor and Caitlyn's two kids.

The de Windt Award recognizes outstanding individuals who exemplify the values and spirit of community service and civic engagement that Del de Windt represented throughout his life. He served as Eaton Corporation's chairman of the board and CEO from 1969–1986.
